CHELATION THERAPY

According to the World Health Organization (WHO), the cause of death of 17.7 million or approximately 31% of people worldwide is being attributed to cardiovascular cases. 53% of these deaths are caused by coronary heart diseases while 17% are due to stroke. It means that 70% of these adverse cardiovascular incidents are the result of clogged arteries.

The blood functions as a vessel that carries oxygen and other nutrients in the cells of the human body. If such blockages in the arteries occur, the normal blood flow will be primarily affected. These blockages are often caused by the accumulation of toxic heavy metals in the body such as lead, mercury, iron, arsenic and aluminum, and can possibly lead to certain deadly cardiovascular diseases.
